

Springdale Student Services Department can help you find and apply for a variety of scholarships and types of financial aid. Below is a list of helpful links that serves as a good starting point in the financial aid and scholarship research process.

FAFSA - <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>

Any student, regardless of income, who wants to be considered for federal, state, and school financial aid programs, including grants, scholarships, work-study funds, and loans, should fill out this form.

CSS Profile - <https://cssprofile.collegeboard.org>

The CSS Profile is an online application used by colleges and scholarship programs to award non-federal institutional aid. year of high school starting on October 1. Schools may have different deadlines - be sure to check with each school you are applying to.

U.S. Department of Education - <https://www.ed.gov>

The U.S. Department of Education has helpful information about students loans and grants.

Fastweb - <https://www.fastweb.com/>

Fastweb is a free scholarship search platform that connects students to college scholarships, trade school scholarships, and financial aid news and resources. Their goal is to help you find scholarships to make college and trade school more affordable.

Finaid - <https://finaid.org/>

Finaid is a guide to college financial aid, with tips on how to help ease the burden of college expenses.

Going Merry - <https://www.goingmerry.com/>

Going Merry is a free platform that helps students, counselors, and scholarship providers all improve access to college education.

UNCF - <https://uncf.org/scholarships>

UNCF is the nation's largest private scholarship provider to minority group members.

UNIGO - <https://www.unigo.com/>

Find over 3.6 million scholarships and grants.

For questions about financial aid and scholarships, contact Ms. Michaela King at michaela.king@springdaleprep.org